

Sugar Mountain Center

Sugar Mountain Edible Landscapes
sugarmountaincenter.com

Hebuckner@gmail.com
Phone: (612) 718-0229

South Royalton, VT

SERVICE	PRICE
Consultations (1-2 hours) We will visit your site, discuss your goals, and make observations/assessments and/or problem solving recommendations.	$50 + additional gas fee for distances over 20 miles (calculated at the federal per mile rate) *Consultation fee can be credited towards partial or full permaculture design
Phone Consultations (approx 1 hr) Ideal for those of greater distance who have specific questions or are looking for general guidance to get started	$30
Permaculture Designs
Basic/generic Includes a personalized written guide to help you create your garden project as well as some basic design considerations.	Basic-$100
Partial design Includes two on-site consultations (initial and follow up), personalized written guide including site specific considerations, and a detailed visual design of a specific garden or a full site basic sketch.	Partial-$275
Full site design Includes two on-site consultations (initial and follow up), full length personalized written guide including site specific considerations, plant recommendations, timelines, financial considerations, & detailed visual site design.	Full-$500
Garden Installation Projects Garden Beds, healthy soil building using organic materials, planting, garden paths, herbs spirals, etc.	$35/hr of work OR pre-arranged contract available based on project scope
General garden maintenance	$30/hr
Private one-on-one training (at your home or SMC site), Private individualized course. Private customized courses or events in a wide range of topics available. Examples: planting, soil building, general maintenance, compost management, harvesting and food preservation, herbal medicine, gardening with kids	Pricing varies based on topic, timeframe, and number of participants. Please inquire.

Sugar Mountain Center is a not for profit business model. All proceeds from services are reinvested in SMC programs.

*If affordability is a barrier, please inquire about work-trade and sliding scale options